

Susan Lemmo

Elected Member by the Annuitants and Class DC Participants Receiving Distributions

Ms. Lemmo was elected Board Vice Chairperson in January 2024, and represents annuitant members of the Public School Employees Retirement System in Pennsylvania. Previously, she had served as an active certified member to the Board from 2014-2022. She served as Interim Vice Chair at PSERS from January to October 2023 and is currently the Chair of the Health Options Program, a self-insured Medicare, Medicare Advantage, prescription drug, dental, and optical program which insures 120,000 retirees and their family members.

Ms. Lemmo retired as an art teacher with thirty-two years of service to The Curwensville Area School District. She has a Bachelor of Fine Arts and certificate of art education from Indiana University of Pennsylvania and a Master of Fine Arts from Pennsylvania State University.

Ms. Lemmo has been the treasurer of The Clearfield, Cameron, Elk, and Jefferson Central Labor Council since 2005. She served on the Board of Directors of Pennsylvania State Education Association from 2010-2017. She was secretary of PSEA's Political Action Committee from 2008-2010.

Ms. Lemmo was elected to the NCTR Executive Committee in 2022 and is liaison to the Education Committee. She has earned the Certified Public Pension Trustee accreditation from The Pennsylvania Association of Public Employee Retirement Systems.

In her spare time, Ms. Lemmo owns a quilt and vintage resale shop where she creates and sells her quilts, clothing, and decorative items. She also owns and operates a mobile old-fashioned candy business and can often be found making people of all ages smile with sweet old-fashioned treats.